Shakti Durga has been teaching and learning about relationship 'best practices' for 30 years. Her proven expertise is in helping thousands of people blaze through obstacles, heal conflict harmoniously and find sustainable self-mastery within the realm of relationships, their work and their lives - in work teams, as well as more intimate relationships with spouse, children, in-laws and challenging extended family.

She is a highly regarded teacher and consultant with the unique distinction of being recognized as a Swami (Guru) in India, because she has embodied the capacity to ignite the spirit of herself and others.

Shakti Durga is the founder and leader of Shanti Mission, with its headquarters in NSW, Australia. Shanti Mission's aim is to provide profound programs that create dynamic inner peace, resulting in sustained empowered relationships. Shanti Mission America is a registered 501(C)(3) charity.

Shakti Durga and her team have taught countless satisfied and successful clients in Australia, the US, Canada, the UK, China, India, Brazil, New Zealand and Germany.
